

End Of The Year Project

The end of the year is almost here. This year in Social Studies we covered 9 units. Your assignment is to create a presentation that has information about all 9 units that we covered.

Your group can have no more than 3 people

1. Pick a specific topic (event, person, battle) from each unit.
2. On each slide there should be a picture and 3 bullet points
3. On each slide at the top have the unit and underneath it the topic
4. The first slide should have a picture, "End of the Year Project" and the names of the people in your group
5. The last slide should say "The End"
6. One member of your group will present 3 slides of your choosing
7. REMEMBER...As few words as possible and do not read word for word from your slides.
8. The plan is to start presenting Monday or Tuesday
9. If you are looking to get a 4 you should do 2 things:
 - Add a 4th fact that was something you did not learn in class
 - Add a 10th unit "Review" which could be English History, American Revolution etc

Example

World War II Pearl Harbor

- Japan
- December 7, 1941
- USS Arizona
